About us...

14 Union Park B+B

started out in 1857 as a single family townhouse built by William Gutterson, a rising merchant-class lumber baron. Following the development of the Back Bay, 14 Union Park -and much of the South End- fell into disrepair until 1994 when it was purchased and renovated from a lodging house with exquisite attention to historical accuracy and detail. It was once again a single family townhouse and with all the charm and ideal locale it had to offer, turning it into a bed + breakfast seemed almost destine. Since opening in 2011 under the stewardship of Devin

Bean, Manager it has become a well-reviewed respite amongst our guests. We hope you will enjoy the charm and relaxation that is truly the experience at 14 Union Park Bed + Breakfast.

From your host...

As a restored boutique B+B, we seek to offer the comforts of home and the relaxation of being away from home. We seek to provide an un-hosted experience while still maintaining the breakfast, daily cleaning and amenities you expect. We offer a unique experience in the heart of the South End –a stylish and desirable locale. Enjoy the history of our rowhouse, relax in our modern amenities, savor that mint on your pillow... we're sure you will!

- Devin, Manager

←Art Right At Home

Starting in 2012, we have incorporated art consignment into our B+B. With an eye towards supporting local artists we have acquired a collection of nearly 80 pieces of fine art to match the taste, eclecticism and price-range of our guests. Now, not only can you enjoy the true Bostonian experience of 14 Union Park, but you can take a piece of it home with you, too! Check out our website to see a profile of each artist and a catalog of their work.
